

Commercial Fishing on Northern Vancouver Island

Grades 4 - 12

You may print this worksheet or use your own piece of paper. Fill in the blanks while listening to the 5 minute presentation, pausing the recording when needed.

Part A Fill in the blanks

The 5 species of Pacific Salmon are:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

The Soyokaze was purchased by Shigekazu Matsunaga in the year _____ before it was confiscated by the government during _____. Mr. Matsunaga bought it back in the year _____.

In the early 1900's, First Nations people would fish from canoes in front of the _____ using cotton _____.

The cannery at _____ Cove was opened in 1904 and from 1908 until 1938 it was owned by a well-liked boss named W.E. _____.

The 3 main methods of fishing commercially from boats are:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Two ethnic groups that made up a large portion of the workers in the canneries were _____ and _____.

The Quathiaski Cove cannery was often busy from _____ in the morning until _____ at night.

Another cannery mentioned in the presentation was at _____ Bay in _____ Inlet.

Part B: Optional research:

1. Do a little research about either trolling, gillnetting or seine fishing. Describe your chosen method with about 5 sentences.

2. Carry out an online search of the Quathiaski Cove Cannery. With 3 - 4 sentences describe a little bit about the token system of payment as received by the workers.
