

Bark, Roots, and Berries (1–5)

Get up close and personal with our West Coast Garden! This program explores the native plants of Northern Vancouver Island and their traditional uses by the First Nations who cultivate and harvest them. Students will create their own compostable pots with native plant seeds to grow at home.

BC Curriculum Connections

Grade 1 Social Studies

- Relationships between a community and its environment
- Natural and human-made features of the local environment

Grade 2 Social Studies

- Relationships between people and the environment in different communities

Grade 3 Social Studies

- Cultural characteristics and ways of life of local First Peoples
- Interconnections of cultural and technological innovations of global and local Indigenous peoples
- Relationship between humans and their environment

Grade 4 Social Studies

- Physiographic features and natural resources of Canada

Grade 5 Social Studies

- First Peoples land ownership and use